Categorization of hotels and resorts are done by MyAndaman purely on the basis of the room cost. The actual hotel rating or actual star categories may vary.

Meals provided in the package are as per the hotels/resorts meals plan. MyAndaman is no way responsible for any menu/quality/taste/hygiene of the meals provided by the hotels.

MyAndaman recommends CP (only breakfast) as most of the time you may not be at the hotel during lunch time. All hotel/resort offers buffet lunch/dinner and the same can be enjoyed by guest on direct payment basis. This provides you flexibility of enjoying different varieties of food at nearby restaurant also. Andaman has small towns/villages with good access to restaurants and plenty of good vegetarian and non vegetarian restaurants. This option may be also less expensive if you utilize it efficiently. Else, MyAndaman is always a call away.
